Good afternoon Matt

We have assessed the requirements of the National Judicial Registrar and Senior National Judicial Registrar vacancies against employees on the SES Redeployment Register and advise there are no suitable matches for the SES roles at this time.

To avoid delays in advertising, please quote reference number SES2018-83 in the editorial instructions for APSjobs.

If the positions are not advertised within four weeks of the date of the most recent check of the SES Redeployment Register, you will be required to undertake another check.

Useful Guidance Material
To assist with managing the SES recruitment process, I have included a link to the HR Practitioner's Guide to Engagement, Promotion, Mobility and Separation and a link to the guidance for the Commissioner's Representative.

Should you have any queries about SES recruitment, please contact staffingpolicy@apsc.gov.au.

Kind regards
